INDEX DIGEST

A

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Analysis of FCC regulation . . 78–92
Congressional investigations—significance for the administrative process 503–20
FCC regulation of color television 802–16
Required records under the McCarran Act 687–728

B

ALIENS

State regulation of nonresident alien inheritance 329–37

BILLS AND NOTES

The fictitious payee and the UCC 281–93
Instruments "payable at" a bank 55–76

C

COMPARATIVE LAW

In legal education 264–79
Legislative Investigations—the British system 521–70

CONFLICT OF LAWS

Jurisdiction of courts on the basis of acts and the International Shoe doctrine 792–98

CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATIONS

In General:

British experience—a comparison 521–70
Defamation immunity 591–97
Fact finding process—importance of 449–54
Foreword to Symposium . . . 421–22
Historical development of investigations by Congress 424–39
Introduction to Symposium . 423–24
The legislator—factors affecting his conduct 571–84
Reforms—the problem and its solution 464–77
Reforms—proposals to safeguard rights of parties 478–502
The role of the press in affecting the conduct of investigations . 585–90
Significance for the administrative process 503–20
Significance for the legislative process 440–48

In Operation:

Inner workings of congressional committees 455–63
Senate Preparedness Subcommittee 634–46
The Un-American Activities Committee 598–633

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Separation of Powers:

Historical development of limitation on congressional power to conduct investigations . . . 424–39

Legislative Powers:

Invalidity of Illinois Domestic Relations Act of 1949 342–49
See Congressional Investigations

Privileges, Immunities and Class Legislation:

The McCarran Act and the privilege against self-incrimination . 687–728

Civil and Political Rights:

Civil rights and the anti-trust laws 171–217
Constitutional limits of compulsory education statute in Illinois . 105–14
Racial violence and civil rights law enforcement 769–83
U.S. Supreme Court and civil rights cases, 1949–50 term 20–38

Freedom of Speech:

Academic freedom 293–303
Regulation of broadcasting by the FCC 82–92

Due Process of Law—Procedural Requirements:

Regulating the internal affairs of labor unions 729–45

Due Process of Law—Property:

Federal immunity from damage claims of riparian owners . 355–61
Just compensation under Fifth Amendment 349–55

CONTRACTS

Damages—loss splitting in contract litigation 153–63
Policing contracts under the UCC 146–53

INDEX DIGEST

A

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Analysis of FCC regulation . . 78–92
Congressional investigations—significance for the administrative process 503–20
FCC regulation of color television 802–16
Required records under the McCarran Act 687–728

B

ALIENS

State regulation of nonresident alien inheritance 329–37

BILLS AND NOTES

The fictitious payee and the UCC 281–93
Instruments "payable at" a bank 55–76

C

COMPARATIVE LAW

In legal education 264–79
Legislative Investigations—the British system 521–70

CONFLICT OF LAWS

Jurisdiction of courts on the basis of acts and the International Shoe doctrine 792–98

CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATIONS

In General:

British experience—a comparison 521–70
Defamation immunity 591–97
Fact finding process—importance of 449–54
Foreword to Symposium . . . 421–22
Historical development of investigations by Congress 424–39
Introduction to Symposium . 423–24
The legislator—factors affecting his conduct 571–84
Reforms—the problem and its solution 464–77
Reforms—proposals to safeguard rights of parties 478–502
The role of the press in affecting the conduct of investigations . 585–90
Significance for the administrative process 503–20
Significance for the legislative process 440–48

In Operation:

Inner workings of congressional committees 455–63
Senate Preparedness Subcommittee 634–46
The Un-American Activities Committee 598–633

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Separation of Powers:

Historical development of limitation on congressional power to conduct investigations . . . 424–39

Legislative Powers:

Invalidity of Illinois Domestic Relations Act of 1949 342–49
See Congressional Investigations

Privileges, Immunities and Class Legislation:

The McCarran Act and the privilege against self-incrimination . 687–728

Civil and Political Rights:

Civil rights and the anti-trust laws 171–217
Constitutional limits of compulsory education statute in Illinois . 105–14
Racial violence and civil rights law enforcement 769–83
U.S. Supreme Court and civil rights cases, 1949–50 term 20–38

Freedom of Speech:

Academic freedom 293–303
Regulation of broadcasting by the FCC 82–92

Due Process of Law—Procedural Requirements:

Regulating the internal affairs of labor unions 729–45

Due Process of Law—Property:

Federal immunity from damage claims of riparian owners . 355–61
Just compensation under Fifth Amendment 349–55

CONTRACTS

Damages—loss splitting in contract litigation 153–63
Policing contracts under the UCC 146–53

COPYRIGHTS
Copyrights and TV—the multiple performance theory 757–69

CORPORATIONS
Limitations on charter amendment 139–46

COURTS
Illinois Supreme Court and compulsory education 105–14
U.S. Supreme Court decisions, 1949–50 term 1–54

D

DAMAGES
Consequential damages in federal condemnation 349–55
Loss splitting in contract litigation 153–63
Measure of damages for trade disparagement 114–22
Treble damages in anti-trust suits 130–38

DISCOVERY
Of government documents under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 122–30

DIVORCE
Reform in Illinois divorce laws 342–49

E

EVIDENCE
Burden of proof as bar to treble damage recovery in anti-trust suits 130–38
Determination of admissibility—uncommunicated threats . . 337–42
Required records and the privilege against self-incrimination under the McCarran Act 687–728

H

HISTORY OF LAW
Bills and notes—development of instruments "payable at" a bank 58–72
Legal doctrines relating to the insane 361–68

I

INSANE PERSONS
Historical development of legal doctrines relating to the insane 361–68

J

JUDGES
Analysis of work of Justices of the U.S. Supreme Court, 1949–50 term 1–54

JURISDICTION
The International Shoe doctrine—jurisdiction on the basis of acts 792–98

L

LABOR LAW
Internal affairs of labor unions . 729–45
Labor disputes and the NRAB 303–21
Non-Communist affidavit requirement of the Taft-Hartley Act 783–92
U.S. Supreme Court and labor law, 1949–50 term 4–10

LEGAL EDUCATION
And comparative law 264–79
What can the law schools do? 746–55

LEGISLATION
The fictitious payee and the UCC 281–93
The New York and California experiments with academic control 293–303
Policing contracts under the UCC 146–53
State regulation of nonresident alien inheritance 329–37
See Congressional Investigations

P

PROCEDURE
Discovery of government documents under the Federal Rules 122–30

R

REAL PROPERTY
Access problems in stratified estates 798–802

RESTRAINT OF TRADE
In General:
Civil rights and the anti-trust laws 171–217
U.S. Supreme Court and trade regulation cases, 1949–50 term . 10–12
Sherman Act:
Proof requirements as obstacle to treble damage recovery . . 130–38
Resale price maintenance . . 369–80
Trade association statistics . . 380–93

RULE AGAINST PERPETUITIES
Effect on modern trusts . . . 92–104

S

STATUTES
Federal Statutes:
Anti-trust laws—and civil rights 171–217
Anti-trust laws—proof requirements in treble damage suits 130–38
Anti-trust laws—trade association statistics 389–93

Defense Act of 1950—maintenance of economic freedom under . 218–63
McCarran Act—required records and the privilege against self-incrimination 687–728
Miller-Tydings Amendment—resale price maintenance 369–80
Railway Labor Act—labor disputes and the NRAB 303–21
Taft-Hartley Act—internal affairs of labor unions 729–45
Taft-Hartley Act—non-Communist affidavits 783–92

State Statutes:
Illinois compulsory education law 105–14
Illinois Domestic Relations Act of 1949 342–49
Regulating the internal affairs of labor unions 729–45

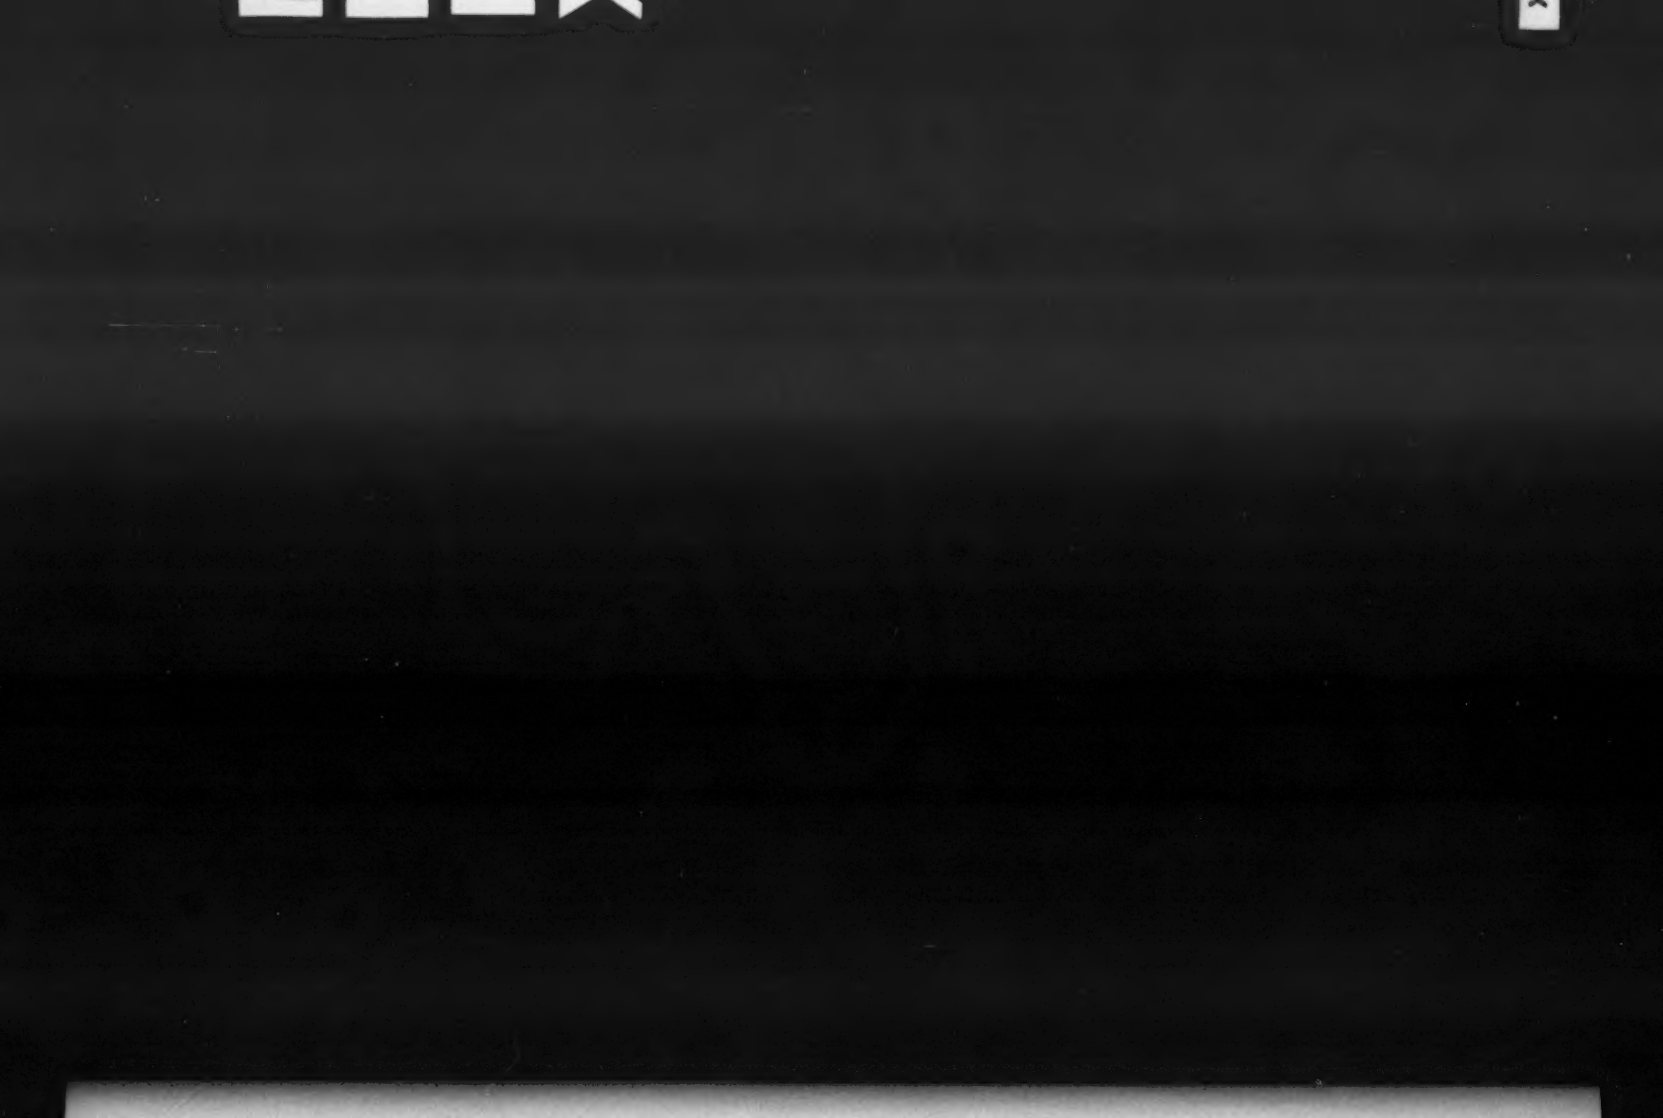
T

TRIAL
Reception of evidence under the McCarran Act 687–728
Special findings and general verdicts 321–29

TRUSTS
Application of ancient rules to modern trusts 92–104

U

UNITED STATES
Federal immunity from damage claims of riparian owners . . 355–61

W


WAR
Maintaining economic freedom under the Defense Act of 1950 218–63